COMMUNITY CONSULTATION FOR MENTAL HEALTH PEER SPECIALISTS

To Discuss Core Job Duties and Training

Your input will be used toward recommendations to enhance integration of New York City Peer Support Workforce.

Eligibility:

- Six months or more work experience providing mental health peer support in New York City.
- Share your ideas about your role as a Peer Specialist in mental health services.

Mission: The NYC Peer Support & Community Health Workforce Consortium will collaborate with community organizations to address the needs of individuals who work in a variety of community health and peer support roles, and those who employ them. The Consortium will work to ensure that the traditions, character, and cultural integrity of community health workers and peer support workers in mental health, substance abuse, family and youth services are understood, respected and integrated into the workplace.
