Peer Counselor II Job Description

Under the supervision of the Consumer Affairs Coordinator, the candidate for the position uses their lived experience as a behavioral health consumer to be a role model regarding the power of hope and resiliency, especially in relation to maintaining healthy habits that prevent relapse of mental illness, substance abuse and/or health issues.

General Patient-Centered Focused Activities:

- Assists the consumer with activities of daily living, e.g., setting up household, public transportation, budgeting, shopping, socializing, parenting, and other skills relevant to an individual's rehabilitation goals. May make home visits.
- Distributes and uses the Guide to Keeping Healthy after the Hospital © booklet in groups with consumers on inpatient units and within ambulatory care services.
- Uses one's personal experience as a consumer of behavioral health services in role-modeling recovery and providing hope for other consumers.
- Shares with the consumers their own personal skills that they use to stay out of the hospital.
- Engages consumers and helps motivate them to set positive goals for their health and well-being. Also helps them to better understand the purpose and benefit of being in the hospital.
- Assists consumers in seeking clarification about the treatment and recovery process.
- Promotes wellness and recovery by assisting consumers, in an individual and/or group setting, to identify their strengths and goals and to promote the notion of empowerment.
- Assists consumers in identifying their own individual warning signs of relapse and identifying and developing individual coping strategies.
- Assists consumers in identifying the causes of what brought them into the hospital and how they can learn how to stay out of the hospital.
- Assists consumers in developing skills intended to improve: mental health, substance abuse, physical health, activities of daily living (ADL), and self-advocacy.
- Links consumers with peer support and social support networks in the community. Documents in accordance with program requirements, in a timely manner.
- Maintains a rapport with assigned Nurse Liaison upon entering and exiting the inpatient unit.
- Participates in a weekly team supervision to obtain information and resources for consumers and staff.
