

Register Now for the Masters in Health Care Management, Psychiatric Rehabilitation Track VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE

WHEN: June 21 from 1-1:30 or 3-30 p.m.

WHERE: Online via Zoom Video Communications

Demand is growing for practitioners and providers who can assume expanded roles in health care.

Help meet this demand by building on your health profession skills.

Are you looking for opportunities to advance your personal and professional goals? The Department of Interdisciplinary Studies and The Department of Psychiatric Rehabilitation and Counseling Professions offers online undergraduate and graduate programs for health professionals who want to complete their bachelors, move into management, health professions education, or work with special population groups such as the aging or people with physical and mental health disorders.

REGISTER HERE

Rutgers is ranked #1 nationally as the best college for educating health professionals. All programs are online, providing you with the opportunity for advancement from the #1 ranked institution from the comfort and flexibility of your home.

The June 21 Virtual Open House will give prospective students the opportunity to learn about online academic degree and certificate programs, and engage in meaningful discussions with faculty and admissions representatives. During the online session, you will have the opportunity to talk with counselors and program directors about:

- Specific program objectives
- The interactive learning experience
- Postgraduate career paths
- How to apply

The following programs will be represented:

- Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences
- Master of Science in Health Care Management
- Graduate Degree and Certificate in Health Professions Education
- Online Aging Health Sciences Program
- Certificate Programs

Please register to secure your spot, and indicate what program you are interested in so we can ensure you are directed to the appropriate breakout e-room.

If you have questions, please contact the Enrollment Management Offices at 973-972-5454 or shpadm@shp.rutgers.edu. We look forward to meeting you online at our Open House.