

CRMAC 1ST QUARTER MEETING

March 14, 2018, 10am-Noon

Location: Broome County Library, Exhibit Room
185 Court St., Binghamton, NY 13901

Pride & Joy Families

Pride and Joy Families, also known as the Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project, was founded in April 2000, and has been partnered with the Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies program at Binghamton University since 2013. We are also dedicated to building the capacity of LGBTQ culturally competent providers in our area. We are dedicated to helping lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ) people in Upstate NY achieve their goals of building and sustaining healthy families. We offer provider trainings, educational programs, information and referral services, a Directory of LGBTQ-Inclusive Services, and support for LGBTQ families and prospective parents. Our network of Pride and Joy Families provides social and educational opportunities, and a sense of community to LGBTQ parents and their children.

Presenters: Claudia Stallman, Project Director and Renae Barber, Program Coordinator

*This meeting/presentation is FREE of charge.

CENTRAL REGION MULTICULTURAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE (CRMAC)

CRMAC is made up of 35 colleagues from local non-profit agencies, hospitals, colleges, government offices and consumers in the Southern Tier. CRMAC focuses on creating and supporting a diverse mental health system by promoting cultural and linguistic competency among mental health professionals, program staff, consumers and the community.
