Center for Family Life and Recovery, Inc. is an organization which is proud to be the area's leading resource provider in Prevention, Mental Health and Behavioral Services, as well as Community and Family Recovery Programs. CFLR, Inc. works to transform the lives of those in our community. Our agency is comprised of a wide range of expertise across the mental health, substance use, and behavioral issue systems.

CFLR is currently seeking to fill a Family Peer Advocacy position. The Family Peer Advocate would play a vital role in improving the individuals' quality of life.

Family Peer Advocate:

- Provide Programming to families – one on one and in group setting
- Establish and build relationships with community organizations and resources relating to the agency Mission/Vision. Attend local, regional and state committee/consortium/coalition meetings as relevant.
- Demonstrate sensitivity to, and respect for, the diverse cultural backgrounds and practices of volunteers, consumers and staff.
- Provide training to volunteers and referring professionals when needed.
- Offer weekly family-friendly events throughout Oneida and Herkimer Counties;
- Convene a Peer Family Support Group.

If you are interested in being a Family Peer Advocate for the Center for Family Life and Recovery, Inc., please submit the attached Application-for-Employment form and submit to:
