

Training & Technical Assistance Facilitator for the Hudson River Region

The New York Association of Psychiatric Rehabilitation Services (NYAPRS) is a nationally acclaimed behavioral health systems change agent that promotes the recovery, rehabilitation, rights and community inclusion of people with mental health condition through state and national mental health advocacy, training and technical assistance and peer service innovations. NYAPRS seeks to fill the following position:

Hudson River Region Training & Technical Assistance Facilitator

NYAPRS currently has an opening for a Training & Technical Assistance Facilitator to develop and implement training for Hudson River regional behavioral health providers on recovery practice innovations as part of our statewide NYAPRS Training Collective for Recovery, Rehabilitation and Rights.

In this position, you will have the opportunity to act independently, develop and deliver formal trainings to the provider community, and actively engage them in learning. You will also provide technical assistance to support providers implementing practice changes.

This is a work-from-home design, with extensive travel involved, primarily throughout the Hudson River region but also includes travel outside the region. Lived experience with a mental health condition and the mental health system and the ability to use that experience to enhance training is highly preferred.

This is an excellent opportunity for an individual who enjoys a collaborative environment and would enjoy being a member of a dedicated team that is playing a pioneering role in our state and nation.

The right candidate will have:

- A GED or High School Diploma, BA/BS preferred
- Great oral and written communication skills
- Experience delivering formal training or leading groups
- Demonstrated ability to engage others in learning and exchanging ideas
- Facility with computers and technical equipment
- A valid NYS driver's license and their own personal vehicle for traveling.
- The ability to work independently and organize their work schedule from a "home" office

Please submit cover letter, salary requirements and resume by September 23rd to hr@nyaprs.org with subject line "Training Facilitator" or submit by regular mail to NYAPRS, 194 Washington Avenue, #400, Albany, NY 12210
ATTN: HR Manager.
