Presenters: Gayle Bluebird, Deb Trueheart, Richard Laudor, Michelle Zechner, and Celia Brown

This second webinar in the series will be a moderated discussion about the transitions everyone is facing during the COVID-19 crisis, with attention to how these transitions are affecting older adults. Audience participants will be invited through chat to contribute transitions they are experiencing or seeing people go through. Regardless of the type of transition, the discussion will come back to the basics of how peer support helps people to know their lives matter and they are not alone.
