Legal Basics: Using Consumer Law to Help Survivors of Elder Abuse

When: Tuesday, August 11, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. PT/2:00 p.m. ET.

Family members, health care professionals, and caregivers often assist older adults by managing their finances, personal care, and household tasks. However, the increased vulnerability of older adults could make them susceptible to financial exploitation and physical abuse by those entrusted with their care. Survivors of elder abuse who leave their abusers might be primarily concerned with their physical and emotional well-being, and may not consider the state of their financial health, especially if the abusers controlled their finances. Helping survivors of elder abuse includes helping them get on a stable ground financially so they will not return to an abusive environment. This Legal Basics Training will describe some of the financial difficulties survivors face and the consumer law tools that can help.

Presenters:

- Jeremiah Battle, Attorney, National Consumer Law Center
- Ariel Nelson, Attorney, National Consumer Law Center

Closed captioning will be available on this webcast. A link with access to the captions will be shared through GoToWebinar's chat box shortly before the webcast start time.

This training will be presented in a WEBCAST format to accommodate more participants. Due to the high volume of participants, computer audio will be the only option to listen to the presentation. No telephone call-in number will be provided. Please plan accordingly. Thank you.

This webcast will be recorded and available on our website shortly after the presentation. The recording and training materials will also be emailed to all registrants within a few days after the training.

The webcast will take place on Tuesday, August 11, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. PT/2:00 p.m. ET.
