

Save The Date

Wednesday, September 9th 12:00 – 1:30

NYC Peer & CHW Workforce Consortium Community Meeting

Peer Support & COVID-19

- Conversations with Kishor Malavade, Taina Laing, and Mark Clarke
- Group discussions of successful strategies and best practices
- Analysis of recent job trends

RSVP HERE – Webex Details to Follow

<https://mailchi.mp/e77775f18056/wh8a02ybi3>

Kishor Malavade, Maimonides Medical Center

Kishor Malavade, M.D. is currently the Vice Chair and Chief Medical Officer of the Department of Population Health at Maimonides Medical Center. Kishor has many years of experience working with peers and CHWs to provide innovative and comprehensive support to communities across New York. Over the past five years, Kishor played a leading role in designing care delivery models for the Maimonides-led PPS, Community Care of Brooklyn, that served over a million people.

Taina Laing & Mark Clarke, Baltic Street AEH, Inc.

Taina Laing was recently named interim CEO of Baltic Street. Mark Clarke is the Director of Adult Home Initiative Bridger Programs at Baltic Street. Baltic Street is the largest Peer Agency in New York State, providing housing, employment, training, entitlements, education, empowerment, and self-help skills, which are essential to an independent and meaningful life in the community. Baltic Street has over 100 staff and serves thousands of individuals each year.