Tuesday, Sept. 15, 2020
2:00 - 3:30 pm ET

Description: While all organizations can benefit from having well-constructed policies and procedures in place, peer-run organizations often encounter unique issues that need special attention. With that in mind, we will discuss the first steps in creating solid policies & procedures that address both general and unique issues for the newly formed peer-run organization. And, for the more-established organization, we will also discuss how to take a critical eye to what you already have in place and to build upon that.
